The statements in this application are true, complete and correct. I understand that any misrepresentation or omission of information shall be considered sufficient reason for withdrawal of an offer or subsequent termination of employment.

Please be advised that a criminal and identity background report will be obtained from an independent reporting agency for the purpose of evaluating each staff member for employment. Furthermore, each applicant will be checked through the state sexual offender and child abuse registries. Finally, because we are committed to hiring the best role models for our campers, please be aware that we may search social networking sites on the Internet (i.e. myspace.com, facebook.com) in order to better evaluate your character.

Your signature gives us permission to conduct the background checks outlined in the above paragraphs.
